

The Wüstenquell Hiking Safari in Namibia

ABOUT THE HIKE

Explore the wonders of Wüstenquell with our exclusive hiking safari! This 3-day, 40km fully catered, slack packing hike offers breathtaking views of granite sculptures and the arid Namib Naukluft Park. Perfect for geology enthusiasts and beginner hikers.

2025 DATES:

23-27 May 2025

16-20 August 2025

22-26 September 2025

Maximum 20 hikers per trip

Minimum 10 hikers per trip

Level 6/10

The Wüstenquell Hiking Safari Itinerary

Arrival and Briefing

Guests will arrive at Wüstenquell Lodge from 14h00 onwards. Transfers can be arranged at time of booking. Accommodation for the first night is provided in tents. Beers, ciders, wines and soft drinks are not included and will be for hiker's own account. Drinking water will be provided to hikers for the duration of the hike. Private vehicles will be parked at the Lodge for the duration of the hike.

18h00 Briefing session with WWS team, whereafter a delicious hot dinner is served

Day 1 and 2:

05h30 Wakeup call and luggage to be handed over to logistics team for packing. Guests will only be carrying their day backpack.

06h00 Coffee and rusks
Brunch will be served along the route.

06h30 Hikers start hiking trail (+/- 12 km)

Hikers will walk through the farm into a dry riverine in the Namib Naukluft Park passing some of the most amazing rock formations. Wüstenquell is known famously for its eagle rock. Game can be seen along the walk such as Oryx, Zebra and Springbok. Star gazing on this unique farm is a must. Hikers will arrive at a wild camp with tents, toilets, showers and dining area.

Day 3:

05h30 Wakeup call and luggage to be handed over to logistics team for packing. Guests will only be carrying their day backpack.

06h00 Breakfast is served

06h30 Hikers start hiking trail (+/- 12 km) Final day of hiking will end at the Wüstenquell Lodge with a welcoming swimming pool and an evening around a bon fire. Dinner and accommodation is provided.